About the Program

Arc of the Bay Culinary Institute is a vocational focused Culinary Arts program, designed to train individuals with disabilities to become “restaurant ready” to obtain a job in the food service industry. This program includes both classroom and hands on instruction in our fully equipped commercial kitchen. Instruction is led by Chef Jacob Fravel, a professional in the industry and alumnus of Gulf Coast State College. Additionally, we receive consultation from a Culinary Advisory Board which includes Chefs from the GCSC Culinary Program to ensure you are receiving a high-quality culinary education.

Notice Regarding the Management and Protection for Personal Health Information

The US Government has established rules concerning the uses and protection of medical and health information. St. Andrew Bay Center has always worked very hard to protect the confidentiality of your records. This notice describes how health information we keep about you may be used and disclosed, and how you can get access to this information.

Please review this carefully:

Our duties as they related to your protected health information (PHI): Any information that we keep about you, whether written, oral, or electronic is protected by federal and state laws. We have a duty to safeguard your Protected Health Information which includes individually identifiable information about:

- Your past, present, or future health or condition
- Provision of health care services to you
- Payment for the health care considered PHI

In addition to protecting your privacy we are also required to:

- Give you this notice which describes our privacy practices
- Explain how, when, and why we may use or give our (disclose) you PHI

Except in very specific circumstances, we must use or disclose only the minimum PHI that is necessary to accomplish the reason for the use or disclosure.

We must follow the privacy practices described in this notice; however, we reserve the right to change the terms of this notice at any time and to make the new notice provisions effective for all protected health information that we receive, disclose, or maintain. Should our notice change, we will post a new notice in all of our reception areas.

How St. Andrew Bay Center uses you Protected Information:

At St. Andrew Bay Center, professional staff work together to provide your services. We record this information and include it in your file. The information is the record also serves as the basis for obtaining payment for services we provide to you. Everyone who works for St. Andrew Bay Center is required to protect the privacy of your records as a condition for working here. St. Andrew Bay Center takes necessary precautions against the inappropriate uses and disclosure of information. All of our staff are expected to access your information only when necessary.

Generally, staff access information about you for the following reasons:

- For services we use and disclose your PHI to provide, coordinate, or manage you services.
- To obtain payment

Both the federal government and the State of Florida have regulation about how to protect your privacy. When these laws differ, we will follow the regulations that provide you with the most privacy protection.

How we Share your Information Outside of St. Andrew Bay Center

Uses and disclosures for which we require your authorization:

- In most cases, Florida Law requires us to obtain written permission before we can release information about you for other people or businesses to use.
- For payment to release information to state agencies, support coordinators, Medicaid staff, in order to obtain payment from them for your care.
- To provide records to a hospital, doctor, nurse, or other service provider not connected with St. Andrew Bay Center.
- When the use of disclosure goes beyond services we provide, we are required to have a written authorization. * Authorizations can be revoked by you at any time to stop future uses or disclosures, except where we have already used or disclosed your PHI in reliance upon your authorization.

Uses and disclosures for which we do not require authorization:

- To avert a serious threat of harm St. Andrew Bay Center uses and discloses protected information to alert those able to lessen or prevent the threat of serious harm to your health and safety or to the health and safety of another person or to the public.
- St. Andrew Bay Center may disclose PHI related to the individual's death to person who may need such information to carry out their job duties.
- For Public Health Activities St. Andrew Bay Center may disclose PHI when we are required to collect information about diseases, injuries or to report vital statistics, adverse medication reactions, and certain communicable disease to a public health authority.
- For health oversight activities St. Andrew Bay Center may need to disclose PHI to the Florida Agency for healthcare Administration, the Department of Health, The Department of Children and Families, Delmarva, or the Commission on Accreditation of Rehabilitation Facilities during monitoring, and licensing, inspections and to demonstrate regulatory compliance.
- For research purposes in certain circumstances, we may disclose PHI for research purposes.
- For Fundraising Purposes St. Andrew Bay Center may disclose PHI to perform certain fundraising activities. An example might be to show your photo on a video or brochure to be used for fundraising purposes.
- For specialized government functions St. Andrew Bay Center may release PHI when a client is incarcerated or hospitalized, and the Department of Children and Families requests such records. St. Andrew Bay Center may provide PHI to authorized federal officials for national security reasons such as providing protection for the President of the United States.
- For Workers' compensation we may disclose PHI to comply with these laws.

To comply with other provisions of law, St. Andrew Bay Center must comply with the valid order of a court to release protected information. We must also disclose PHI to authorities who monitor our compliance with these privacy requirements. We must furnish records relating to a Medicaid recipient to the Medicaid Fraud Control Unit in the Department of Legal Affairs, upon request.
